

ICSE Solved Paper 2018

English Paper-2 (Literature)

Class-X

(Maximum Marks : 80)

(Time allowed : Two hour)

Attempt five questions in all from only three textbooks.

You must attempt at least one question from each of the Sections A, B and C and not more than two other questions from the same books you have already compulsorily chosen.

The intended marks for questions or parts of questions are given in brackets [ ].

SECTION A

Answer one or more questions from only one play, either The Merchant of Venice or Loyalties.

Drama

The Merchant of Venice : Shakespeare

1. Read the extract given below and answer the questions that follow :

Portia : Go draw aside the curtains and discover
The several caskets to this noble prince—
Now make your choice.

Morocco : The first, of gold, who this inscription bears,
"Who chooseth me shall gain
what many men desire";

- (i) Who is Morocco? How did he introduce himself to Portia when they first met in an earlier scene? 3
(ii) How would Morocco know that he had made the right choice? What would his reward be? 3
(iii) Which casket did Morocco finally choose? What reasons did he give for rejecting the casket made of lead? 3
(iv) What two objects does Morocco find in the casket of his choice? What reason does he give to Portia for leaving in haste? 3
(v) How does Portia respond to Morocco's parting words? What does this reveal of her nature? 4

Ans. (i) + Prince of Morocco/suitor
He says 'do not mislike me for my complexion/ it is the shadowed livery of the burnished sun/ where he was born and brought up.

+ He says that – his blood is as red as that of 'the fairest creature northward born' – that the best regarded virgins' of his land find him most attractive – that his appearance inspired fear in the most courageous of men. He urges Portia not to judge him by his skin colour.

- (ii) + One of the three caskets contained a picture of Portia. If he chose that casket, then he would have made the right choice.

+ His reward – Portia's hand in marriage.

- (iii) + Casket made of gold.

+ He felt that men would be prepared to take a risk only if there was a chance of winning 'fair returns'.

Says- This casket threatens.

He decides that a noble [golden] mind like his should not stoop to such a worthless choice.

He was not prepared to risk anything for lead.

It is damnation to think so base a thought.

The lead casket is too gross to even rib Portia's cerecloth.

- (iv) + A carrion Death [skull] and a scroll [letter, schedule]

+ He was too heartbroken (at having made the wrong choice and lost the chance of winning her hand) to bid her a lengthy (tedious) farewell.

+ He is sad, disappointed.

+ Says- labour lost/ farewell, heat, and welcome, frost/ his hopes are dead

- (v) Portia says "A gentle riddance... Let all of his complexion [kind, personality] choose me so"/ She is happy to see him go.

Personal Response :

+ She judges a person by outward appearances. She does not wish to marry Morocco because of his dark skin/ racist/ racial prejudice/ biased/ does not like vain boastful men/ considerate of his feelings/ tactful.

(Any four points)

2. Read the extract given below and answer the questions that follow :

Bassanio : Were you the doctor, and I knew you not?
 Gratiano : Were you the clerk?
 Antonio : Sweet lady, you have given me life and living;
 For here I read for certain that my ships
 Are safely come to road.
 Portia : How now, Lorenzo!
 My clerk hath some good comforts too for you.

- (i) Where does this scene take place? What had Portia directed Antonio to give to Bassanio just moments before the above words were spoken? [3]
- (ii) Portia had just given Antonio, Bassanio and Gratiano a letter to read. Who had written this letter? What does Bassanio learn about Portia from this letter? [3]
- (iii) What good news does Portia have for Antonio? How does he respond to it? [3]
- (iv) To whom does Portia refer as "My clerk"? What 'good comforts' does the 'clerk' have for Lorenzo? [3]
- (v) How was Bassanio persuaded to give away the ring that Portia had given him at the time of their marriage? What does this reveal of Bassanio's relationship with Antonio? [4]

- 2. (i) + Avenue in Belmont, outside Portia's house
 + The ring that Portia had given to Bassanio at their wedding – the ring Bassanio had given to the young 'doctor' of law for saving Antonio's life.
- (ii) + Bellario
 + That Portia had been the learned 'doctor' / lawyer at Antonio's trial.
- (iii) + Three of Antonio's merchant ships (argosies) full of riches (richly) had come to harbour quite unexpectedly (suddenly)
 + Antonio says, 'I am dumb' (speechless) / Says- 'You have given me my life and my livelihood.' / He is happy
- (iv) + Nerissa, her lady-in-waiting
 + Nerissa tells Lorenzo that he and Jessica would inherit all Shylock's wealth after his (Shylock) death.
- (v) + At Antonio's urging 'My Lord Bassanio, let him have the ring;
 Let his deserving [He deserves the ring because he saved Antonio] and my love withal / Be valued 'against your wife's commandment'

+ Bassanio valued Antonio's friendship highly – could not refuse him – was prepared to risk Portia's anger/ dearest friends/ ready to make sacrifices for one another. (Any four points)

Loyalties : John Galsworthy***

*3. Read the extract given below and answer the questions that follow:
